

Grief and Loss Support Group

Have you lost someone or something of tremendous value, recently? Grief may be experienced in response to physical losses, such as death or in response to symbolic or social losses such as divorce or loss of a job. The grief experience can be affected by one's history and support system. Taking advantage of a grief and loss support group could make a significant difference in your life.

Cancer Care Services is offering a

Grief and Loss Support Group

meeting the second Tuesday of each month
5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.
beginning March 10

Dr. Randy Rudisell, chaplain at Cancer Care Services, will be facilitating this group. You and any other caregivers in your family are cordially invited to join us.
