FULTZ NAMED INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

FORT WORTH, TX — May 13, 2010 — Paula Fultz was appointed interim executive director of Cancer Care Services by the board of directors, effective May 5. “We value Paula’s commitment to CCS and her dedication to our clients. Her strong work ethic and passion for our mission will keep CCS on a straight path until the new executive director is named,” said Board President Bill Bledsoe.

Fultz joined the CCS board of directors in 2004 and served as president from 2007 to 2009. During that time she worked closely with staff to develop the organization’s strategic plan and a working business plan.

Prior to working in marketing at IBM, Fultz was a school principal, teacher and counselor. She holds a master’s degree in early childhood and special education from Texas Women’s University and a bachelor’s degree in international marketing from Texas Tech University. Fultz is a lifelong resident of Fort Worth.

Cancer Care Services is a nonprofit organization founded in 1946 that provides post-diagnosis support for cancer patients and survivors and their families and caregivers living in Hood, Parker and Tarrant counties in Texas. All emotional, social and spiritual support programs are free and may be accessed by anyone impacted by cancer. Financial assistance is based on a sliding scale, determined by household size and income.
